DR. MICHAEL WEINER

Dr. Michael Weiner currently serves as MAXIMUS' Chief Medical Officer (CMO), where he supports improved Health and Human Services globally. He is a board certified Internal Medicine physician who also brings more than 25 years of experience in the clinical and technology fields. As the MAXIMUS CMO, Dr. Weiner helps drive the overall strategic direction, growth and oversight of a global clinical health services program, and all clinicians within MAXIMUS. This includes overseeing solution development and delivery of prevention, wellness, health assessments, chronic disease, aging support and case management.

Prior to joining MAXIMUS, Dr. Weiner was the Chief Medical Information Officer and Global Healthcare Lead for IBM, where he supported the development of innovative healthcare solutions and services while identifying new business areas and opportunities to continuously increase the delivery of quality healthcare across the globe.

Prior to joining IBM, Dr. Weiner was Chief Medical Information Officer and Director of Clinical Informatics for the Department of Defense and Veteran Affairs Interagency Program Office where he was responsible for creating a unified Interagency Electronic Health Record (EHR) for over 125,000 providers and 18 million beneficiaries worldwide.

Dr. Weiner is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and attended medical school at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. He holds a Master's degree in Management and a Master's degree in Information Systems Technology from the George Washington University. He is an adjunct professor of Health Information Technology at the George Washington University and is one of only a few physicians ever to have been certified as a Chief Information Officer by the U.S. General Services Administration. He is an active member of the American College of Physicians, the American Osteopathic Association, and is a former NASA Space Shuttle takeoff/landing physician.

Dr. Weiner has served on the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine Alumni Board, the board of the American Medical Informatics Association as well as the Health and Human Services Office of the National Coordinator, Health Information IT Policy Committee. He has received numerous awards from the President of the United States for his service in the Navy, including two Meritorious Service Medals, and two Air Medals.

DR. RICHARD F. SOUTHBY POLICE SCIENCE PRIZE

Recipient: Christopher Maclauchlan, Police and Security Studies

Dr. Richard F. Southby was a faculty member at the George Washington University from 1979 to 2006, having served as department chair, associate dean, interim dean of the former School of Public Health and Health Services, distinguished professor of global health, and executive dean in the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Health Affairs. He was granted emeritus status by the Board of Trustees in 2006. Dr. Southby was the founding director of the Police Science Program in the College of Professional Studies.

The Dr. Richard F. Southby Police Science Prize is presented to an exceptional graduating student from the Bachelor of Professional Studies in Police and Security Studies program. The prize was established by Dr. Southby's wife, Dr. Janet R. Southby, Colonel, U.S. Army, Ret.

FOUNDING DEAN ARTERTON AWARD

Recipient: David Gargaro, Political Management

The Founding Dean Arterton Award is given to the graduating student who epitomizes professional distinction and ethical conduct in political management. F. Christopher Arterton, who served as dean of the Graduate School of Political Management from its founding in 1987 to 2010, established this award to celebrate the core ideals valued by a school of professional politics.

Before joining the GSPM, Professor Arterton taught political science at Yale, MIT, and Wellesley, achieving national recognition as a scholar of American politics and as a professional pollster. As the founding dean of the GSPM, Arterton advanced his vision that, beyond teaching abstract theory, institutions of higher education have an affirmative obligation to prepare their students for practical participation in democratic governance and electoral politics. In the process, Dean Arterton created the new academic discipline of political management. Having led the merger of the school into the George Washington University, Arterton subsequently expanded the school's curriculum of political management to include programs in legislative affairs, strategic public relations, and the politics of governance. During the 23 years of Dean Arterton's leadership, the GSPM emerged as the foremost academic institution of applied democratic politics in the world.

MARK AND DEBBIE KENNEDY FRONTIERS OF FREEDOM AWARD

Recipient: Desiree Antoinette Dillehay, Strategic Public Relations

During his time leading the Graduate School of Political Management (GSPM) from 2013 to 2016, the Honorable Mark Kennedy encouraged students to devote themselves to expanding the reach of freedom around the globe with the goal of making democracy work more effectively. The Mark and Debbie Kennedy Frontiers of Freedom Award recognizes the GSPM graduating student who best exhibits actions or preparations to promote or protect the expansion of political and economic freedom beyond the borders of the United States.

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE COLLEGE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES DISTINGUISHED SCHOLARS

Undergraduate Recipient: Dan Arthur Titus, Jr., Integrated Information, Science and Technology

Graduate Recipient: Josephine E. Sciortino, Publishing

The College of Professional Studies Distinguished Scholar Awards recognize the undergraduate and graduate students who best demonstrate the college's core competencies of strategic thinking, communication, collaboration, leadership, and ethics.

COLLEGE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES FACULTY EXCELLENCE AWARD

Recipient: Diane Norris Morgan, Paralegal Studies

This honor is awarded to the part-time faculty member in the College of Professional Studies who has provided extraordinary service to the students and the college. The award recognizes both enlightened teaching and meritorious efforts to advance the college and its programs.

The university confers degrees three times per year but only has one commencement ceremony. The following students are candidates for degrees in course by completing degree requirements in August 2018, January 2019, or May 2019. Those who will complete degree requirements and have their degree conferred in the 2019 summer semester are marked by an asterisk.

The celebration program is meant to be a guide to the ceremony. Although every effort has been made to ensure its accuracy, the program is not an official record of an individual's degree status. The Office of the Registrar of the university maintains the official list of all graduates.

From the Office of the Dean

We offer a hearty congratulations to the graduates of 2018-2019. We recognize the challenges you faced balancing personal and professional responsibilities as you completed your rigorous academic program at the George Washington University. We share the pride you, your family, friends, and colleagues justly feel on this special occasion. Congratulations and welcome to the GW community of graduates.

About the College of Professional Studies

The academic programs of the College of Professional Studies (CPS) are designed with the requirements of adult learners and working professionals in mind. CPS offers undergraduate and graduate programs that address the competency requirements of adults working in emerging and rapidly changing professions. The college's innovative programs are typically co-developed through collaboration among university content specialists and outside partners: government agencies, professional associations, consulting organizations, and business and industry leaders.

About the Graduate School of Political Management

GW's Graduate School of Political Management (GSPM) is the first and foremost school dedicated to the study of applied politics, offering graduate programs in political management, legislative affairs, strategic public relations, and global advocacy, as well as international programs in Latin America. The school seeks to educate students and professionals in the tools, principles, and values of participatory democracy, preparing them for careers as ethical and effective advocates and leaders at the international, national, and local levels. The GSPM has a global network of more than 3,000 alumni, who are leaders and change-makers in politics, government, communications, and public affairs. The school connects its students with this impressive network to help them advance and succeed in their careers.
