The GW Master of Professional Studies in Publishing is designed for current and aspiring professionals, including post-bachelor and post-graduate students who have earned their degrees in a variety of disciplines but who seek careers in publishing.

The core curriculum provides an integrated approach to print and digital publishing with courses on copyright, production, design, and business. After completion of the core courses, students then move into the track courses that are focused on professional roles within the industry: editorial, business, design, marketing, and technology. Students elect one primary track in which all courses are required and take elective courses in at least two additional tracks.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Online application
- Application fee
- Bachelor's degree with minimum 3.0 GPA
- Official transcripts from all institutions of higher education attended
- Statement of purpose
- Resume
- Two professional references

Application deadline for Fall cohort is April 1.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Helen Forner
Program Representative
(703) 299-9147
hforner@gwu.edu

Arnold Grossblatt, PhD
Program Director
(202) 994-7220
arnieg@gwu.edu

VISIT US ONLINE AT:
http://cps.gwu.edu/publishing

(continued on back side)
“The program gave me essential information about the constantly changing aspects of publishing—both print and online. I’ve been able to use this information on the job, and it’s made me more marketable in the field.”

—Jennifer Nichols, Publications Manager, The Society of American Military Engineers